

Each table represents a category of data that will be collected for each project that completes the data collection survey. Therefore, project_id is the primary key that links all tables so that data can be tracked per contributing project.